Well usually someone who's name reflects a bull's orgasm would.

So i dont blame you for that.

Because ghuman is a human orgasm right? Your insult sucks, and has nothing to do with what I said at all. I don't know what makes you this stupid, but at least you know its working.

who the fuck said ghuman. Wha? Wha? thats right, no one. We're talking "G" spots, and feeling the g's. Maybe you should think about that while your out there raping those bulls.

Im going to type this clearly and as dumbed down as possible so that even you can understand it. You(oblivion or "oblivious"<--I can mock names too) are stating that the name gbull(Me) is somehow correlated with the orgasm of a bull. However, calling the g-spot of a bull "gbull" would be the same as calling the g-spot of a human "ghuman". I would also like to point out that your thinking about people raping bulls. You might want to see a phsyictrist you sicko.

Gbull, the real play on names here, would be to change Oblivion's numbers in his name into "1337" letters, like so: Oblivion165. We all know the letters in Oblivion, since they are in the English language, as is said word "Oblivion" however, not everyone knows the "1337" language, compiled of nothing but numbers. If we considered Oblivion a "1337157" or "Leetist" then his name would instead be "Oblivionigs" which would be translated from slang to "Oblivion Ni***rs". Now, since we have discovered this, we can now officially mark the Oblivion Ni***r as a Leetist, thereby lowering his IQ dramatically, down to an astonishing 4.2. Since this IQ is not possible, because there is a percentage in it, it is immediately lowered by half, and the percentage making it a very low number of: 2. Thus, we have just called the Oblivion Ni***r an idiot.

Wow, ebonics. Do you know klingon as well? 165 has nothing to do with leet speak or any other form of lower-class communication.

All things being done, we all have been here ALONG time. We generally agree on most things, some we dont. I think its best that we just say "I agree" "I disagree"

We are putting on a bad show for the newer members.
