Even I am getting tired of the things going on in these boards now. There is no reason for a bunch of pinheaded morons to call themselves "e-terrorists" and run around ruining every thread they can find. Even back when the forum was first started, way back in 2001, this place didn't have people dropping to that level of idiocy.

So with this happening, this place doesn't generate amusement or entertainment anymore. If I can't find this place funny, there's something seriously wrong. I'm really not one to bitch about things like this or contradict myself, but I'll make an exception here for our "e-terrorist" buddies:

Jball430: I barely know you, but I do know you have more sense than to start up these stupid things so that you get the members to turn into groupies. Nothing these forums ever organize does anything but annoy people or fail horribly. Case 5 Studios (Anyone remember that Seth guy?), "renevo", and a few other groups - they're a good example. This e-terrorist shit is just another notch in the huge walking stick for the Renegade Public Forums. Cut it out and find something better to do with your time, like make this place worth visiting for laughter again.

Gbull: I don't know you, I don't care to know you, and I don't like you. From what I've observed you just can't get a clue and you end up following whatever is going to get you Internet friends. For being the big bad football player you make yourself out to be, one would think you'd have something better to do with your time than run around and mess a game forum up.

Lijitsu: You came here early this year and still can't figure out that being a complete assclown with no sentence structure will not get your posts acknowledged as much more than the ramblings of a semi-intelligent child.

RyuKishen: You come here in July and think you know how this place works, and that instantly trying to fuck it up will somehow make you entertaining. You are not entertaining. Your writing is not funny and your antics are not amusing. If you could step back for a moment and see yourself as others see you, without throwing in something about how you finally fit into a group in life when you got the chance to be an "e-terrorist", you'd see why you're such a fucking attention-starved idiot. It wouldn't be anywhere near as bad if you made me laugh when I read your posts, and I find it easy to laugh at a lot of things.

DJM: How did you even get caught up in this? A while ago I thought you had some kind of common sense, but then after a bit I remembered that you were the shit-for-brains that went to a server and bitched out the administration there, then whined here when you got kicked for breaking their rules. So let me rephrase this little commentary about you: I know how you got caught up in this e-terrorist shit, you're an idiot and you probably couldn't help trying to find a way to make yourself look worse than you already do.

The rest of you "e-terrorists", assuming there are any more: Go into a chat room, knock your heads together like you usually do, and collectively pull your heads out of your asses. If your aim is to destroy the forum and make people less likely to visit it (I don't take kindly to motherfuckers trying to take my job from me), you're doing a really good job. If I find it hard to look at this place during the time I'm online, then this is really going down the shitter.

Congratulations, or whatever.
