Aircraftkiller wrote on Fri, 16 September 2005 19:36 Even I am getting tired of the things going on in these boards now. There is no reason for a bunch of pinheaded morons to call themselves "e-terrorists" and run around ruining every thread they can find. Even back when the forum was first started, way back in 2001, this place didn't have people dropping to that level of idiocy.

We've done at most 4 topics. Stop acting like every post on these forums is taken off-topic by us.

Nothing these forums ever organize does anything but annoy people or fail horribly. Case 5 Studios (Anyone remember that Seth guy?), "renevo", and a few other groups - they're a good example. This e-terrorist shit is just another notch in the huge walking stick for the Renegade Public Forums. Cut it out and find something better to do with your time, like make this place worth visiting for laughter again.

Actually, we have had many people say that they were entertained by our work. Look at nopic's "shirt 4 my sister" post. We SAVED him from the amount of flaming he would have received.

You are not entertaining. Your writing is not funny and your antics are not amusing. If you could step back for a moment and see yourself as others see you, without throwing in something about how you finally fit into a group in life when you got the chance to be an "e-terrorist", you'd see why you're such a fucking attention-starved idiot. It wouldn't be anywhere near as bad if you made me laugh when I read your posts, and I find it easy to laugh at a lot of things.

Like I said above, many people have said that they enjoyed what we did.

Aircraftkiller wrote on Fri, 16 September 2005 19:36 The rest of you "e-terrorists", assuming there are any more: Go into a chat room, knock your heads together like you usually do, and collectively pull your heads out of your asses. If your aim is to destroy the forum and make people less likely to visit it (I don't take kindly to motherfuckers trying to take my job from me), you're doing a really good job. If I find it hard to look at this place during the time I'm online, then this is really going down the shitter.

Our aim isn't to destroy the forum. We actually are trying to teach spammers not to spam. They post useless topics, we hijack the thread, and make it our own. Make it entertaining (even though you disagree) until it gets locked.

Also, cmatt, speak English please.
