Seriously, you people need to start reading the thread before you flame, or even better dont flame. The only thing I've downloaded for renegade is renguard.

To restate everything: I dont cheat or tried to bypass renguard. Or downloaded anything that would let me do that. Sometime renguard will let me in like normal, but the rest of the time is will say im banned for using blacklisted game2exe. The other thing is that it says the message is for xslim420x and i have no idea who xslim420x is.
