Sticky post says:Message from RenGuard: You have been banned by Crimson on 21.08.2005 05:53:12 for username: Using blacklisted executable. Goodbye

This means you have been using one of 2 available "RenGuard cracks", that try to bypass RenGuard by modifying itself (the game.exe) file. We have fixed these exploits, but they are not 100% fool proof, until I have time to implement a new detection method that produces no false positives.

He may be innocent.
