Maybe i shouldnt say this after Crimson was so kind enough to unban me from RG, but when i wanted to play Ren, i found i could use one of my other PC's.

Oh, by the way, for any of you that do not know, i am Xeon... Strange how all of you treat me differently when i use a different name. Oh well, i think im gonna leave the RG foudms for good now, and maybe Renegade all together. So i may see you guys later in the future, but for now, bye.
