In Toronto there has been over 150 reports of people stealing children's candy. In one incident, a 15 year-old boy was confronted by two or three older boys and was told to give them his candy. When the 15 year-old refused, one of the older boys stabbed the kid in the stomach, took his candy and ran off.

The 15 year-old will make a full recovery, doctors say.

Crazy isn't it? Over candy! What is this world coming to?
