You don't. Not unless the server is modified, in which case the method to get them would be server specific.

Unless you are asking how to make this yourself? In which case you need to ask on the modding forum.

You realize that you insulted everybody, and then repeated exactly what they had been saying, correct? They've been telling him the whole time, you can't put mutants on a ladderred server.

Karmai, I want every single word I'm about to say sink into your tiny little brain: If a server is ladderred, you CANNOT allow mutants. It's the way the game was made. It's the way the game is going to continue to be. If you want mutants, your server has to be UNLADDERED. No matter how much you try, you won't be able to put mutants on a ladderred server. Listen to everybody when they say this. It's not that hard of a concept to grasp.

If you STILL didn't understand that, maybe this will help: u no can put mutantz on laderd servr cuz itz not alowed lol. stupid westwood didnt put it in cuz their dum an dont no how 2 maek gamz lol. soz ur gunna hav 2 uze uladerd servr 4 mutantz. sry dood.
