That's sad...

I can't see how people can actually play that long. I've played renegade for hours at a time, sometimes when I'm playing at night, it'll be 3 or 4 before I realize what time it is and go to bed, but I frequently hide my guy in a corner to go use the bathroom and/or get some food so I can eat while I'm playing. Otherwise, I start getting cramps and headaches. And once I have those, I can't do much, especially play an fps.
