Similar use of graphics, similar use of spelling and grammar, "light" only really started posting since XeonTeam left, he has some technical knowledge from what I've seen so far, he was the word "tek" in his avatar, and the name isn't very imaginative.

XeonTeam registered here January 2005, so did this dude. The register dates are 9 days apart.

And as for the i.p. difference, we all know he has alot of technical know-how so I wouldn't doubt he knows how to change his i.p. address.
