Hi, I'm using The All Seeing Eye to connect to servers.

It says in red letters (which means that I don't have the map)
C&C Complex.mix but isn't this a standard map?

To download the Ubermappack will solve this (I think) but as I'm playing on European servers I don't really need this huge mappack.

I was just wondering if this Complex is a different map than the standard map.

Thanks in advance.
