I have always been a great supporter of this mod. I think all the stuff you show looks great. Including the above pictures. But seriously.. when are we all gonna get to play it? Anyone who asks this question is normally greeted with a tirade of "it will be done when it's done" or "when it's ready" by the fanclub. But please, could you give an estimate of when i will acyually be able to host a server for this and play it?
