lol yeah guys I submit his mods just as a helping hand, and write the read-me for them (especially the gunrun mod had to tinker with it a lot to find out how to fix problems he didn't mention, such as when you host the mod stay on one map becuae when map switches people get 0 bug and get disconnected ect.). Only thing i forgot was it's SP characteristics which I really did pay any attention to, which lead him to make a new version with a mutant rave drop, and put another read-me in there about SP. Also added more audio voices he gave to me.

I usually sumbit his stuff to Ammo, rengen, and Dante's site

I guess also I have better communication skills in telling of his mods doesn't seem like he wins the crowd over in these forums
