Blazer wrote on Sun, 08 January 2006 03:39I still plan on doing this...one of the things holding me back was things like aquiring and implementing the protocol to report to the WOL ladder server....but since XWIS has no ladder server, maybe I dont have to bother with that now :-\
There are still issues with NAT that i need to work out as well.Nothing says it won't come back (I can dream, can't I?) .
