I feel kinda bad for Renardin. I mean, if I textured that much stuff and suddenly people said they should fire me, my artistic abilities suck, and that I could be replaced by anyone I would be pretty offended and wouldn't feel welcome in the community at all. Hell, just texturing one thing and having people act that way would make me feel horrible.

Yeah, yeah. I know what he did. But I'm just looking at this from an artist's perspective for a moment.
