They were doing really good and would of had a few more goals if it weren't for the bullshit penalties. That first touchdown the Steelers got was clearly not a touchdown. Didn't you see him move the football up into the goal with that look on his face? It wasn't in, and yet they gave them the goal.

Sorry to whine all over the place, but you'd have to admit that those refs were bad refs. The Seahawks played a very fair game.

Yeah, there were some BS calls there. And that time where he "pushed off" was more of a TD than the first Steelers one.
