Hey people i got NR and stuff up wth a server and all, but heres the problem, after everygame ends it takes a long time to load to the next map, and everyone just sits there while it says gameplay pending and either we just have to sit there for a while or we will lose connection eventually. So is this an internet problem of mine? Because my friend has a pretty good internet connection to it and we have the same problem. Any help would be greatly appreciated

Sincerely,
