Dear Crimson,

Hello. You may not know me. And I may not know you. I do know a certain Snip though. As a fellow operator at a server he is an operator at, I was shocked to learn that he was banned from renegade. I knew he would never cheat, as the guy I know would never ever cheat. He is one of the most respected players I know. So when he told me that he was banned for spamming a bot, when bots are banned from even showing up, I thought it was very weird.

I also find it weird that most of you people here consider renguard to be the greatest thing since sliced bread. Do you realize that we have seen people get around renguard? And what about the many glitches that program has? Do you realize that I know people who have had to re install everything on their machine because of renguard suddenly not allowing them to play? Not only that, but when I was even able to get renguard to work, it DIDNT WORK. It would always say "pujols005 is not running renguard" when i had the damn screen up there and was logged into renguard. I feel that many of you place way too much stock on how good renguard is. It does its job some of the time, but it is very unreliable.

I finish with this: renegade is, sadly, dying. XWIS hasnt been that bad, when you discount that the clan page wasnt up for an age and a half. But I have noticed that it has mostly been good, honest players being booted lately from the game as n00bs take it over completely. I, for one, am tired of renguard continuing to be praised and of great players and people being booted. Snip should be allowed to come back. He made a mistake, but who doesnt? And also, bots are banned in the first place. Where was Crimson when the bot got on?

And to all the morons who think that snip is a n00b, I say this: stop just saying things to be completely loyal to Crimson, who also makes mistakes and this was one of them. Why dont you look at the facts for one time in your damn lives? If i get banned for writing this post, so be it. That will just show that dumbasses have taken over, because I am trying to reason with you here. In fact, I am sure some dumbass will reply to this post with their favorite putdown "you n00b". I say to that person: grow balls and tell me what you really think. Thank you.
