AmunRa wrote on Sat, 11 March 2006 16:56don't see how your gonna do it when almost no linux server owners use GUI's, this would be much easier if NR was written in C or C++ like it should have been, but since its not, I don't see linux anywhere in NR's future, half in part because wine blows.

Exactly...I'm writing RavBot to run as a console app (EVEN on Winbloze) for exactly the reason that AmunRa said...
