There's this awesome game that a friend of mine started up on another forum which I visit. I think it'll do well here...

To play the game, you grant the previous poster's wish, but in a horrible way (like the cursed monkey hand in that Simpson's halloween episode), and then make a wish of your own.

example:

Quote:(me)

I wish I could ascend like Daniel Jackson in Stargate.

Quote:(next person)

Granted, you ascend. Unfortunately, while you are eating lunch with Buddha, he eats you and you cease to exist.

I wish...

I'll start.

I wish I had more hot chocolate mix.
