umm apperntly you dont know whats happening. CORE PATCH 2 AUTOMATICLY DOWNLOADS NO CD. Unless its not supposed to. In that case it did for me and things wen't screwy. I dont doubt the ability of the creators but this "false cheating" thing needs to be fixed. I love how all the forum people (not including developers) know the answers to nothing.
If you believe your Game2.exe was corrupted from CorePatch 2, you may re-download it. Attached to this message is the Game2.exe which I use (it should be the one installed from CorePatch 2, which is the one from The First Decade, which does not require your CD).
