Last night I saw, although not the greatest show ever, certainly the greatest show I'll have the privilege of seeing.

Queen + Paul Rogers.

Yea, that's right. Eight thumbs up. It was THAT good.

Although I really couldn't give a shit about Paul (In fact he made it all that much worse, with his terrible vocals and incessant "Bad Company" songs he mixed in with classic Queen), Seeing the two remaining active members of Queen made it very worth it.

Brian May (Guitarist) is now offically a god in my eyes. I've seen him play before, but there's just something about seeing him play live...

They're touring the US as we speak. Go see them! NOW!!
