Oh, it's not bad. People who play are jerks, and it can get monotonous if you're not careful, but otherwise Counter-Strike is a lot of fun.

Of course, given the choice between CS and Renegade I'd take the latter, but that's only because Renegade is so damn good, not because Counter-Strike is bad.

Besides, it's where I learned to play FPSs.

Edit: Completely off-topic, but it would be so amazingly cool if Blizzard made a StarCraft FPS. I heard StarCraft Ghost is in the making, but it looks like it's going to be released for the console only, and even then it looks like a cheap Splinter Cell ripoff...
