Ok, this is an infantry rush against an OB, this is how it works:

1. Get a Havoc and a Hottie
2. Sneak into the NOD base via tunnels
3. Make sure the OB targets the Havoc (therefore the Havoc will have to leave the tunnel/s first), first and stays on him
4. Then the Hottie runs out and repairs the Havoc
5. When number 4 is done, make sure that you are both running and repairing the Havoc.

By the way, does anybody know how the OB targets enemies, because if it randomly attacks enemies and doesn't stick to a certain target then this strategy is probably useless, unless you have 2 or more Havocs, this will increase the chance of the OB hitting one of the Havocs instead of the Hottie.
