When you turn on Caps Lock it is not proper to turn it off in the event of hitting a proper noun. Yes, that kind of shit happens seemingly on IRC because most autocompletes don't check for your Caps Lock activation, I know, but the point still stands.

I HOPE NOBODY EVER FORGETS THE ATTACKS ON America ON September THE 11TH 2001!

See, just doesn't work right.

Who's got stairs in their house, anyway?
