Come on Goztow, thats bordering on negative skepticism. Piracy is perfectly legal in Guyana. In fact, they have a television network based on a pirated satellite feed.

Off topic, I have a song I picked up in Guyana I wanted you to listen to. It sounds like the old Soviet Union National Anthem performed by a Russian born James Earl Jones. It is definitely an English version of an old Russian pride song. It's catchy too. I tried to upload it last week but it exceeds the limit.

"Long live our Soviet mother land, built by the peoples mighty hand. Long live our people, united and free. Strong in our friendship, pride by fire. Long may our crimson flag inspire, shining in glory for all men to see"

When I say English version, the fellow singing and his chorus of back up singers are VERY RUSSIAN.
