Reborn wrote on Wed, 28 June 2006 15:19 Well, you would really need to download the objects.aow from ssaow and port you mods to that instead. There are scripts that are kooked to it that aren't in the stock objects.ddb file.

Um, I already have SSAOW 1.5, and ofcourse the objects. But I don't understand everything you just explained. Something in similiar terms would be nice

Thanks, I know im dumb with mods
