Honestly Im not a big fan. The reason I'm making this topic however is because I remember seeing my first anime movie a long long time ago and It was probably the best one I ever seen. I really would like to see it again. I just dont know the name of it. I also can't remeber any of the characters names. I was thinking some anime nuts here could help me. I'll give you as much info as I know.

I saw it on the sci-fi channel a long time ago. It takes place in the future. The main story was humanity was enslaved by robots. All the people were waiting for a savior and some girl shows up and they keep calling her some name and shes like thats not my name and, the people are like THATS YOUR NAME AND YOUR OUR SAVIOR. Well it turns out she isnt but some other guy shows up and he is and he starts looking for the robot leader. I don't remeber exactly but I think the girl and the boy are brother and sister and as it turns out the robot is like there dad somehow... I think.

One part I remeber the most is actualy a pretty funny part. There is a bunch of guys in a nuclear submarine. I don't know why they did this but they seen a swan flying over and their like " THATS HIM NUKE HIM!!!!" So they nuke this swan flying over and the swan lives. All the guys in the sub are like WTF? HAXOR!!! lol jk

Another part there is a bunch of humans in a work slave camp thingy and they decide to revolt.... They get mowed down by robots with mech guns.

I wish I knew more. I tryed to google that but.... how the hell would I?
