I went and bought Command & Conquer The First Decade and i wanted to play on renegade so I installed it and then as told by my freinds i got renguard and installed it properly. Finally once everything was installed i went on to try multiplayer once i had logged in it said.....please install this game again without a non shared cd key.

then i clicked ok and no servers were coming up.

could someone please help me. A.S.A.P

ThankYou

I had that problem too...I just waited a while, and it eventually fixes...weird, I know, but after 3 months, it worked again
