untill i get proven otherwise, i don't believe.

That's the problem, we have given you proof, you just don't WANT to believe it, therefore you are not even considering it as proof.

I think the problem lies deeper this then, its not about weather we can prove it to him, its just that hes just missing commen sense that most people have.

When I was younger then you, I could understand that we landed on the moon and so on.. why is it so hard to believe.

Can I ask you sometehing please, do you believe in god`?
