I like how an alias of his is "eaadmin10".

I don't think I have anything to add to this thread. Everything that needs to be said has been said, except for:

1. Although I lack any hard evidence that you haven't been in the Marine Corps or don't work for EA, I also lack evidence to the contrary, except for your word which is worth less than the bandwidth you used to give it to us. I submit that you do not work for EA, have never joined the Marines, and are no older than 20. If I were you, I'd change my story and start claiming I'm 12 really quick. At least then I have an excuse.

2. Regardless of where you work, your IQ, or what military organization you used to belong to, you sir are a dicko, and have been acting as such ever since you started posting here. Even Joe Kucan could come here acting the way you have and still be shunned for being a dumbass just like you. The thought that you would expect respect is almost stupider than the other stuff you've posted. Almost.
