Please congratulate icedog90 and Doitle for being selected by the community as global moderators! Give them a few days to learn the ropes of all the new buttons available to them.

I would also like to thank the community here for being so cooperative in the voting process. 63 people cast votes which was also very impressive.

We're going to be having some private discussion about certain issues and how we're going to deal with them going forward. Please be patient.
