I just think people don't take the time to notice the spelling of others. They just read the words rather than paying attention to how they're spelled. I don't know if it's necessarily done purposely, but it sure is annoying when you spell something correctly, someone repeats that word, and then they spell it incorrectly.

I guess it's just one of those quirks in people. Learning from your peers doesn't really seem to hit home with many people.
