Technically its not renegadecommunity's ladder.

Renegadecommunity is just a clone website of the old westwood renegade website. BUT that ladder is the official ladder for renegade and is still being hosted by westwood. Its like only thing I am aware of, that still runs on its servers (apparently from the ftp), and that is one of the reasons so many of us would like to keep it here

BTW, they are working to get it resurrected, and when it is, yours won't even come close.
