I'm afraid to go into RG servers now, because from what I've seen, the second I fire my rifle, someones gunna say i cheat, and ban me. RG cant help me because it doesnt work on my computer. So that being said, im a sitting duck in most servers. I've said this before but noone seems to do it: post on the server owner's forum and explain your situation, asking not to forcerg you.
