I will be contacting Justin. Since he is now Co-Owner of *our* business, he will obviously want the $30 back. But back to topic..

I never accused you of attacking my servers, obviously anyone with your knowledge of security is smart enough not to attack servers under any circumstances. Since I believe my point in making this thread has been reached, this thread should be closed. As for fl00d3d and j_ball430, take your fight somewhere else since j_ball430 has nothing to do with this argument, except commenting / suggestions, etc. Thanks.
