but all your questions are answered in the mentioned IRC RFC... and you just say it doesnt help... so you just didnt read it, did you?

so open it again and read point "4.4 Sending messages".... for your "talking in channels" problem.. you will see the PRIVMSG command then......

perhaps you should get yourself another hobby i did already try that al else i would be posting here again.

also i did read that site and it is telling me what you are saying.

sometimes it will work sometimes it wont
