KIRBY098 If you have as much concept of civic duty and loyalty backed up with action as I think you do, you would never understand.

let he among you that has not sinned cast the first stone...right? The very first insult thrown on this thread...so dont even blame me same side or not...if you're not in it for the right reason, then you're not on my side.

K9Trooper Why is it, every time the US has any kind of a conflict, the anti war/conflict groups start the "Draft Re-opened" rumor?

putting words into my mouth...and then I defended myself.

as for spotelmo...we weren't in Korea nor vietnam for the right reasons. They started out good...but they turned into mental retardation that we should be there.
