What evidence do you have that Kholdstare has DDoSed anything? Ever?

And no, "rumors on the internets" really doesn't count.

Do you have any idea how many times I've been playing in N00bstories servers, when KholdX would start an argument (never the other way around), said something like "you're gonna have connection problems if you keep this up" whenever anyone said something back, then the other person left the game? Then people say "oh, he left" and KholdX's reply would be "looks that way, don't it"?

Then people complain about it (REPEATEDLY) in the N00bstories private admin forums (yes, I've read these considering I used to be a server mod there) and Crimson would refuse to do anything about it, in fact going as far as to defend him, because, and I approximately quote:

"Khold's my pet bulldog... when people fuck with me, he fucks with them"
