Wow, about fucking time people actually condemn the cheating bastards. I thought it was an inside joke. Every time I'd join the 4 vs all with a greeting of "how are you cheating mother fuckers doing?". I was bombarded with "they don't cheat", or "they use teamwork and we just suck." The cheating didn't annoy me as much as the naive idiots that would defend them. Every time I asked sunami for a test, a1 would reply with "you don't need to test him. He doesn't cheat." Never did get a test. If enough good people joined to overcome the cheats, they would announce the server was going to shut down in 5 minutes. The pathetic, bullshit faggots still don't bother me as much as the dumb-asses that would defend them.
