I'll put in a bid from JeffLee - LCG.

And now for mine.

As has been said, it depends on the situation.

If I am sniping, I will see if their barracks is dead or not. If it is, I get the Ramjet sniper, as I know I will have PLENTY of one shot kills, no matter where I hit.

Against Vehicles, LCG or MAss Driver for Nod, PIC for GDI.

For Anti-Infantry.. it depends. You do not always have to jump for the Mobius/Mendoza. Sometimes a simple shotgun is all you need.

For buildings... well, Techie still is the top of that.. BUT a Volt rifle fully loaded and some Timed C4 can take out a building, and I'm not sure about the PIC/MD either... I think they can.

Anyway, it all depends on the situation.
