Be careful though. If it is something generic (like a price listing, or services offered) it takes a lot to be guilty of plagiarism. There is only so many different ways the same thing can be stated, that it is inevitable that someone will come up with the same thing (I'm sure that if you go to a restaurant, you'll notice that all the menus basically look the same [ie. names of dishes, descriptions of the dishes, etc], done up in a different fashion).
