I voted no. Aircraftkiller did flame me the few times I did actually play with him and that would have been a long time ago, except, I didn't give a shit. There have been a LOT of people that's talked shit, and I still don't give a shit what they say. As far as I know, he's only truly bad-mouthed mod-makers and I'd have to say a lot of it would have merit to saying the work is bad. When you have "ultra aow" where you get massive loads of points, you easily get 1000 dollar characters and can afford anything you want at any given time. You change the game to make it easier for people, when it's already pretty damn easy. Or stupid mods like having all the characters have shotguns. It's just stupid. I'm not going to say all of his attacks had merit, but some did, and in some of the cases the people modding don't only did it on their spare time. So if his opinion means so little, ignore his posts if you're a modder, and let that be the end of it.

I still find it ironic that the reason ack would be banned, is not because he flamed, but the fact that instead of discrediting spoony, he told the truth, and that's what may/may not lead to him getting banned. Perhaps this all would have been avoided if it was just brought up right away.

Edit:

Matix wrote on Wed, 04 October 2006 20:47 Why say we have hatred against you, if you voted yourself out? Personally, no one gives a shit about you, you could die right now, no one would care about you except your beloved family & friends. As "Moe" has mentioned, behind all is a good person, but behind aircraftkiller, is really an asscrackfiller. G?g

Who the fuck are you to judge him? You're like, what, 14? Not only that, but you stole other people's work and said it was your own, apparently. You ran your own server, and you CHEATED in it(which, granted you're apparently not alone in this, but it's still a shitty thing to do) Not only that, but when bbence got caught cheating by doubling his firing rate with ramjet, what did you do? Oh yeah, NOTHING. Maybe everyone should go into your server with cheats on, because apparently moderators can cheat at will? Of course, that would mean that you'd have less of an advantage while playing, and that would suck. Because you, for some reason, place yourself above other people who just want to have fun, and so you cheat. How about you intend to grow up, and be mature? It comes with responsibility of owning something. As for no one caring about him, the same could be said for pretty much damned everybody if they haven't even MET the person. I don't give a shit about you and that's expected. If ack did happen to pass, at least he's done something for the community, what little or a lot that may be to anyone's opinion. Can't exactly say the same for you now, can we, cheater?

Oh, i won't even touch on the fact that you pretend to be other people :\
