I wish I could meet this stupid bitch...GOD DAMN BIBLE BASHING AMERICANS..

Moving on from my rant..I think I may go read some Harry Potter then I may rack up a M16..Go down to my old school and open up. Oh wait Harry Potter is just a book..Why oh why would anyone think that. Jesus I know herion addicts that are more sensible then her..Someone really needs to sit down with her and have a "chat". By this I mean tie her up and check if she has a brain.

True story: A friend of mine decided to have a fun time getting completely wasted on alcohol and drugs...He then started reading the bible (big mistake). He got so paranoid by reading the bible that I found him locked in his bedroom refusing to come out until I burnt the bible. Maybe it was the drugs...Maybe it was the alcohol..Maybe it was the combination of both. Reading the bible is worse then reading anything else in this world.

Completely offtopic but Meh Do I Care?
