Mine is Razgriz 4, callsign Archer from Ace Combat 5. I go by Archer or Razgriz in a lot of games because like me, he learns new things without any practice whatsoever. (I picked up a dulcimer yesterday and played "Anthem of the Soviet Union" like I knew it already.) I go by Berkut here only because at the time, I was playing the game in a Sukhoi S-37A Berkut. Anywho, Archer's my favorite VG character.

That, and he looks a bit like me IRL, so says the n00bstory folk.

Any sig I make is unrelated. All are made with Windows Media Player, which are really fun to make.

PS: Warranto, your avatar reminds me of Light Jak from JakIII, one of my favorite game characters.

Doitle, that boy aint right.

Pirate, yours is... odd...

Gbull, cool, but I kinda like Seymour better for some reason.
