because without me there was no deal period. This situation wouldnt even be here. The host name would still be in the hands of Matix(teh-pwnerer)

The contract is with Kamuix and Tsunami. The agreement you and Tsunami had was NOT directly related to the deal with Kamuix and Tsunami. Therefore, you are NOT entitled to the nickname because you paid for it.

However, I'm wondering that if you took the server out from underneath Kam if it would then break the contract between him and Tsunami, allowing for you to make a deal with Kam for the nickname.
