First of all...all of this is a concept...I havn't really figured out what I all want, so Dark's premature posting was a mistake, AND it's not a key, cause how else are you gonna rescue? But instead be a command that you can disable proxys until u have "confined" ur prisoners. But that's pretty much all I have for now. If u have any ideas and/or concepts, please email me @ jball430@hotmail.com
