Aircraftkillerafter you actively participated in an anti-Renegade\Westwood Studios association

I was never Anti-Renegade / Westwood. I've always been respected in the C&C some more then others. I never condealing in attack Westwood personally unlike some people from WSE. I never spreaded shit around about them (ok maybe some..). I've been in the C&C community longer then 1/2 the people in this forum. Weather or not i was in WSE. Why do you think i left WSE? To save my respect in the community. Yet you look at yourself, Aircraftkiller, who likes you? A majority, not many, you go around talking shit to everyone and whats it all come down too? Hating the famous Aircraftkiller. Think about it.
