Why isn't beta a choice

Nah jk, anyways got the video, and i must say it looks like you have gone a long ways with this mod. The gameplay looks very much on par, the texturing looks like it needs a lift more so in the resolution area (ren textures aren't always that great)

The bridge at the start i think needs remodeling, its the future lol not 1806 when they couldnt think past a box.

I like the ammount of detail you put into way weapons shoot, those are very good emitters/projectiles, and effects. The boat is really good, intresting how it fires at the bots. Would like to see more as that really doesn't show much of the current design. I can see near the end it shows what looksl ike a much better modeled bridge, id love to see more polygons put into the physical parts of the map as that also enhances gameplay as its not an eye sore.

There thats my rant then, very good map though keep truckin and it be great. Just try to get some better textures going and ill be more then happy lol.
