That's all he is. He doesn't even seem overly skilled, but he is very arrogant over it.

Spelling and grammar aren't that big a thing. Only for idiot elitists like Dave Mason, who happens to be a completely worthless troll. But when thrash tries to educate people about something it's incredibly annoying to trawl through his abortions of the English language.

Just stick to troll, asswiser is just an annoying label.

You dare judge someone you do not even know? Pathetic. You have been on these forums how long? I do not think I am a legend with Visual Studio, far from it, where you got that from, who knows. I never called myself skilled either. You need to rethink who and how you judge people, it is going to come back at you in the end.

Seriously! He called those Physicist, Aureonotacists that determined that 911 WAS infact brought down by explosives idiots, so you should be doing the same for him.

Happy?, I used spell check.

Spell check is a good start, but I wasn't calling those people idiots. It's good they questioned. But I'm positive it wasn't a case of explosives. Look at empty's loose change internet detectives case.

It would be handy if you could paste a link or show an extract from an article where these different scientists and people analyzing said evidence determine it was explosives.

And Dave Anderson, I was on these forums well before you. Under different aliases. I remember when you used to be a drooling retard (dead five ). And I can judge you and did, you are a useless worthless troll who can spell and code better. And you hold yourself too highly above others which is your major down fall.

Mindtzar? Well, so that is what it is all about, a grudge. A grudge from the past that you can't seem to get over and start pulling false accusations on me. I have never thought of myself higher than anyone else on these forums. I don't know what your problem is, but you really need to get over it. I am ashamed of how I acted in the past, but that is exactly it, in the past. I guess I am here to defend myself on this one. However, I am not going to further argue with someone who can't get over a stupid grudge; you should learn about the word called forgiveness. You will need it. Have a nice life, I have nothing further to say to you and your pompous attitude.
